

Nancy Lynne Larkin Price age 83 of Andover, Massachusetts died with her beloved children Amy and Doug by her side on January 26, 2022. Nancy, known as 'Lark' during her Mt. Holyoke days, received an A.B in English Lit and went on to Harvard for an M.A.T She briefly taught English at Abbot Academy before devoting her time to supporting her husband Meredith in house counselor and boarding school community responsibilities at Phillips Academy. In 1988, Nancy received an MSW from Simmons School of Social Work and went on to work as a successful psychotherapist.

Nancy's greatest loves were her family, her grandchildren and spending time on Kezar Lake in southwestern Maine. As a 52 year summer resident she kayaked the lake, listened to loons, walked the country roads with family dogs and enjoyed the company of her family and lifelong friends. A voracious reader and lover of opera and chocolate, Nancy often had a book in one hand and m n m's in the other while listening to a favorite opera. She will be dearly missed.
