

Tribute to Sue Bradley Cabot

I encourage you to read the Birthday Bio of Harriet Newhall on the website (go to 'Community' and drop down to Birthday Bios), which will give you another insight into the life of Sue Bradley Cabot at Mount Holyoke. I continue to find it very moving despite the number of times I have read it.

Several years ago (October 2020), Sue and I had a brief exchange of photographs in response to a challenge to Sue to create 'Art in Bloom' flower arrangements to accompany a painting in her home. Go to the 'Just for Fun!' section of the website to see the results. It was indeed fun! We had hoped to encourage classmates to submit photographs of their own creations. Perhaps it's not too late! Send me photos of your own pairings and I will post them---a tribute to Sue.
