

Donna DeGoey – July 28, 1961

“A gracious, quiet, and kind person,” recalls Marian Strong Moore. Donna’s untimely and tragic death in a plane crash in the fog over Nantucket cut short her plans to pursue her love of literature as a recipient of a two-year scholarship at Oxford University. In her memory, a gift to the Mount Holyoke Library for the purchase of books of English literature was made by the Class of 1961.

Additional Thoughts or Memories?