

Irene Kask Pink

September 10, 1988

Irene graduated magna cum laude, with a major in English, and received her MA from University of Wisconsin in 1962. She was executive managing editor at New American Library for eighteen years and well known in the publishing field. Irene was a woman of loving warmth and compassion, deeply missed by husband James, several cousins, and all who knew her.