

Jane Kaplan Yendell

August 14, 2013

Jane had been in the hospital in Temple, TX, for three weeks fighting congestive heart failure. They attempted to do a triple by-pass but unfortunately it did not succeed. She had been ill for some months, but she kept telling people "not to worry."

From the New York Times: Jane, 72, passed in peace on August 14, in Georgetown, TX. Memorial service: 2pm Saturday, August 18, 2012 at Cook-Walden Davis Funeral Home, Georgetown, TX. Jane was born on November 7, 1939 in New York and lived in New Rochelle, NY until 2007 before moving to Texas. Jane was a graduate of Ethical Culture Fieldston School and a proud alumna of Mount Holyoke College. She was an active member and volunteer in numerous groups in Sun City, and a passionate progressive. Jane is survived by her son Michael, daughter Susan and husband Tony, and grandsons, Anthony, Michael and Jonathon.
