

Sally Niness Graham

February 2, 2019

Sally Niness Graham died on Feb. 12, 2019, at her home in Downingtown, PA. A native Philadelphian, Sally majored in sociology. She met George Graham while working in NY City-- their subsequent marriage lasted 55 years until his death. Sally was first and foremost dedicated to her family, and was an active volunteer at the Agnes Irwin School and Episcopal Academy. An avid gardener, she welcomed hundreds to her home for Chester County Day and grandchildren's birthday celebrations! As a devoted member of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society for over 30 years, she served as a leader and volunteer at the Flower Show. In 2015, she was honored by the society for her service as a mentor and role model of civic responsibility. Her smile, easy laugh, and genuine interest in others will long be remembered. Survivors include children George R. Graham and Kathryn G. Duggan, three grandchildren, and sister-in-law Lois Graham Tingler, MHC '55. A memorial service has been planned for June, full bloom for her beloved gardens. (Thanks to Eleanor "Nony" Moore Barr for passing along information.)
