

Barbara Freeman Douglass Vice-President

Engaging with classmates during the planning of the 60th Reunion was so energizing that I wanted to continue my involvement with our amazing class. I was widowed in March (just before the Covid lockdown thankfully.) My social life now is walks with friends since my volunteer activities have been curtailed. I am very thankful to live in a rural area where there are many places to roam.

barbaradouglass4@gmail.com