Class of 1971 -- Archives Discoveries: Wendy Wasserstein

Friday, May 21, 1:30-2:30pm ET

WHO: For anyone in our class who wants to learn more about classmate Wendy Wasserstein's papers in the Mount Holyoke College Archives and Special Collections and enjoy an examination of a "collage journal" she created during her senior year as she contemplated her future. We got a teaser at our 40th reunion, with a small exhibit on Wendy's years at MHC and her play, "Uncommon Women." Here is an opportunity to dig deeper.

THIS SEMINAR IS LIMITED TO 20 CLASSMATES. TO RESERVE A "SEAT,"
EMAIL : bethboland@aol.com

WHAT: Archivist Leslie Fields will briefly introduce participants to the Archives holdings, especially those pertaining to Wendy Wasserstein. After being shown examples of Wendy's "Great Expectations" collages, small groups will meet in breakout rooms to discuss the collages. The groups then will reconvene in the main Zoom room to share impressions and insights.

WHEN: Friday, May 21, 2021, from 1:30-2:30 ET.

HOW: Register for our 50th Reunion weekend, May 21-23, 2021 (registration is free!) at <https://alumnae.mmtholyoke.edu/reunion>, and then reserve a place in this class by emailing Beth Boland at bethboland@aol.com.

Participants will receive more information, including the Zoom link, before the class.
