PUBLIC ART MANAGER, CITY OF SARASOTA
Wednesday April 10, 2024 at 10:30 am

FREE EVENT

Join the Mount Holyoke Club of Southwest Florida at City Hall, Conference Room 112, 1565 1st Street, in downtown Sarasota 34236, at 10:30 am. There is ample free parking behind City Hall. An optional lunch will be held at nearby 1592 “Wood Fired Kitchen & Cocktails” on Main Street following the presentation. There is no cost for the tour, and lunch will be paid individually.

Mary Davis Wallace

Mary Davis Wallace, Public Art Manager for the City of Sarasota, will provide a 40-minute overview of the City’s public art program, the new vision of the recently adopted 2030 Public Art Plan, and how public art contributes to the vibrant cultural network of Sarasota. She will also speak on the relevance of the cultural economy and how to retain working artists and other creatives to foster a Creative City. Mary Davis received a bachelor’s degree in landscape architecture from North Carolina A&T State University and holds a master’s degree in urban planning from USC Price School of Public Policy.

The City of Sarasota is exhibiting a capsule collection of original works by the Florida Highwaymen in City Hall. Mary Davis will provide a quick tour of the works and their history after the main presentation.

Register at mhcswfl@gmail.com. Please provide your class year, telephone number, and whether or not you will come for lunch. Sign-up deadline is April 3rd.
